

After the storm - with high tides and winds whipping up waves in the Stoborough flood plain, one side of the towpath became eroded in various places....

Thirty or so volunteers met up with wheel-barrows and machinery to shift 16 tons of hoggin to reinforce the bank where needed.

The end of a good day's work!

